Part I.—Annual Criminal Statistics for the Year 1919.

TABLES 1 TO 5.—ASSIZES AND QUARTER SESSIONS	see page 3
TABLES 14 TO 18.—COURTS OF SUMMARY JURISDICTION AND	} see pages 25 & 41
TABLES 19 TO 31.—POLICE RETURNS OF CRIME,

Notes to Tables 1, 3, and 5

(a.) The titles of offences (Column 1) are much condensed. The fuller titles, and the offences comprised under each head, are given on page 95 of the Criminal Statistics for 1885 except in some few cases where subsequent enactments have made further changes necessary.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same Assizes or Sessions for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation; and the rule followed is to select that for which the proceedings were carried to the furthest stage—to trial if there were several indictments, to conviction and sentence if prisoner was tried on several charges. If there are several convictions, the offence selected is that for which the heaviest punishment was awarded. If the final result of proceedings on two or more charges is the same, the more serious offence (as measured by the maximum penalty allowed by law) appears in the Tables.

(c.) Where, in addition to the offence thus selected for detailed tabulation, the same person is prosecuted for other offences of a distinct character, and charged in separate indictments, the number of these additional charges is given in columns 24 to 26 of the Tables, column 24 giving the total number of such charges, column 25 the number resulting in convictions, and column 26 the number for which separate sentences (not concurrent with those in columns 11 to 19) are passed. Only distinct offences charged in separate indictments are included in these columns; additional indictments merely varying the form of the charge, and additional charges appearing as counts in the same indictment, are excluded.

(d.) Where a person is prosecuted for one offence and convicted for another (e.g. committed for murder and convicted of manslaughter), the case appears only under the offence of which he was convicted.

(e.) Columns 2, 3, and 4 ("Numbers for Trial") include only such cases as actually come before the Assizes or Quarter Sessions. Persons who die, escape from prison, abscond while on bail, or are removed to an asylum before trial, are not included.

(f.) Column 15 ("Imprisonment") does not include sentences of imprisonment in default of payment of fine, or in default of finding sureties.

(g.) Columns 19 and 23 ("Recognizances") include cases where recognizances are required, whether with or without sureties and, if sureties are required, whether they are found or not.

(h.) Columns 29 to 33 are for those cases where more than one punishment is imposed for the same offence.

[illegible]

of Persons for Trial for each Offence in each County in the Year 1919.

[illegible]

† One case (Stroke in Bayle)

Notes to Tables 14, 16.

(a.) These Tables include only offences tried summarily. All indictable offences where the Court does not actually assume the power to determine the case summarily are excluded. Further, these Tables include only cases where the proceedings are criminal—that is, lead if successful to a conviction. There are a large number of cases which are quasi-criminal in character, but where the procedure is by complaint, leading, not to a conviction, but to the making of an order. These are provided for in a separate Table—No. 17.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same time for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation, and the rules followed are the same as in Tables 1, 3 and 5 (see notes to these Tables).

(c.) The offences included under each of the titles of offences in Column 1 are stated on page 44 of the Criminal Statistics for the year 1895, except in some few cases where subsequent Enactments have made further changes necessary.

Notes to Table 14.

(d.) Table 14 corresponds to Tables 1, 3, and 5, and (as regards length of sentence) to Tables 2 and 4.

(e.) Column 7, "Committed to Industrial Schools," includes only those commitments to Industrial Schools where an offence is charged. Other commitments to Industrial Schools where the proceedings are not criminal appear in Table 17.

(f.) Columns 19 to 26, "Imprisonment," do not include terms of imprisonment in default of paying fine or of finding sureties.

(g.) Column 18, "Reformatory School," contains all cases of persons sentenced to Reformatory School detention, whether they are actually admitted to a reformatory or not.

(h.) Columns 29 and 34, "Fines," include all cases where a fine is imposed, whether the fine is paid or not.

(i.) Columns 21 and 25, "Recognizances," include all cases where the defendant is ordered to find sureties, whether the sureties are found or not. It must be remembered, however, that the Table applies only to convictions, and that it does not include cases where a person is required to find sureties upon complaint. These cases are included in Table 17.

Note to 16.

(1.) Section (A) of this Table gives the ages of all persons convicted summarily of indictable offences, section (B), however, contains only persons apprehended and convicted; persons convicted on summons have to be excluded on account of the difficulty of ascertaining their ages.

Offences against the Defence of the Realm Regulations have in this year's Returns been shown, as far as possible, opposite their appropriate headings—Shop Acts, Highway Acts, &c. &c. Offences against the National Health Insurance Acts are shown opposite "Labour Laws—Other Acts for the Protection of Labour."

Notes to Table 19.

(a.) Column 1, "Offences."—The titles of the offences are the same as in Tables 1 to 5.

(b.) Column 2, "Number of Crimes known to the Police"—This column includes all crimes reported to the police within the year whether committed by the same or different persons, and whether any apprehension takes place within the year or not.

(c.) If there is a committal or conviction within the year, the Table shows the nature of the crime as judicially determined. Failing this, the charge which is named in the summons or warrant on which the prisoner is arrested is taken as determining the crime. If there are no proceedings and no apprehension, the character of the crime is judged by the facts so far as known to the police.

(d.) In columns 3 to 18 the number of persons proceeded against is given, not the number of crimes or charges. A person charged at the same time with several offences appears as one person only. In selecting the offence for tabulation the same principle is followed as in Tables 1 to 5—the charge resulting in conviction or committal for trial has preference to the others; and subject to this the more serious offence is selected. If there are two or more convictions at the same time, that for which the heavier sentence is inflicted is regarded as the more serious. These columns include only cases disposed of within the year. Cases pending at the end of the year are reserved for inclusion in the following year's tables.

(e.) Columns 4 and 12, "Discharged," contain cases where the Magistrate does not assume power to try the case summarily, but discharges the accused under Section 15 of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, or Section 25 of the Indictable Offences (Ireland) Act, 1849.

(f.) Columns 5 and 13, "Tried Summarily and Acquitted," contain cases where, after the Magistrate has decided to deal summarily with the case, the charge is dismissed or withdrawn.

(g.) Columns 6 and 14, "Charge proved and order made without conviction," contain cases dealt with under Sections 1 and 2 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907, and cases of children charged with indictable offences committed to industrial schools or to the custody of relatives, &c.

(h.) Columns 8 and 16, "Committed for Trial and Detained," include all persons committed to prison or place of detention to await trial, whether they are subsequently released on bail or not.

Notes to Table 20.

(i.) The titles of the offences are the same as in Table 14 (b), and as in that Table, only criminal proceedings are included.

(j.) Notes (c) and (d) above apply to this Table.

RETURNS FROM THE SEVERAL COUNTIES.

TABLE 25.—Numbers of Habitual Criminals at Large.

TABLE 26—Numbers of Houses of Bad Character.

The examination for the purposes of these Tables was made on the first Tuesday in October, 1919.

The organization for the release of these trailers was made on the first Tuesday in October, 1940, Column 2 to 5, "Number of Modified Elements of Large," indicate persons who are known to engage actively in crime as their avocation, or part of their means of livelihood. Persons previously convicted, but not labeled criminals, are not included. Crime is understood in the same given to by the definition in Section 30 of the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1917, as any felony, and the following misdemeanors:—(1)stealing or possessing stolen goods, (2) false pretenses, (3)obtaining by fraud, and possession of those following implements, or any vehicle used between 24 of the Larceny Act, 1904.

Column 7, "Buyers of Masters of Slaves Goods," includes houses reasonably suspected of being used for the receipt of stolen goods, whether there is an actual conviction against the owner or not.

Columns 3, 4, and 5 include all houses where thieves and other isolated criminals regularly resort and meet each other, whether or not the occupants of the houses are suspected of actively harboring them or of complicity in their crimes.
